

Creeksea Place

Wedding / Event Planning Course

Wedding/Event Planning is a complex business. It requires exceptional organisational skills, an eye for detail, a trusted team of relevant contacts and a feel for what you, or your client, require from an Event.

Here at Creeksea Place we have an amazing back drop and experienced team of professionals who will share their vast knowledge with you to host your event at Creeksea Place, to host your own events or to further your career in Event Management.

Our Event Planning Course covers events from inception through to the departure of the last guest.

Our course will give you an in-depth look at:-

- Introduction to wedding/event planning
- Initial stage planning
- Basic etiquette
- Sales
- Getting started in business
- How to motivate staff
- A complimentary table for you and 1 guest at one of our High Tea events, additional guests are welcome to attend at an extra cost

On successful completion of the course you will receive a signed certificate confirming you have attended the course, a written appraisal to share with future clients or employers and possibly even an invitation to join our team at Creeksea Place.

Call us now on 01621 784535 to book your course